After 18 months of pregnancy and lots of protest within the family, Akhil (Shahid Kapoor) and Simran (Priyanka Chopra) finally decide to tie the knot. However, a few months later, Simran finds out that she is pregnant too. As Simran gets uncomfortable with this pregnancy, and she does not know who the father is, Akhil tries to distance himself as much as possible. Simran gets to know the truth later, and then the couple is forced to choose between their own happiness, and that of their child. Rakeysh Omprakash Mehra originally entered the Hindi film industry as an assistant director for composers Aditya Prakash and Ilaiyaraaja. In 2007, after a 3-year hiatus, he composed music for Bhaag Milkha Bhaag, Ek Tha Tiger and Jab We Met. A few years later, he made his debut as a director with the 2012 drama Raanjhanaa, the film received critical acclaim and many awards. In 2014, Mehra ventured into the underworld with Agneepath and received similar praise. The following year, he also played an important role in the onscreen chemistry of Akshay Kumar and Sonakshi Sinha in Singh is King. He went on to win the Filmfare Award for Best Music Director for his work in his own directorial debut, 2015's Jab
