ABOUT TEAHOUSE MEDIA TEAHOUSE MEDIA is a video game publishing company dedicated to creating new and engaging experiences that immerse players in digital worlds full of wonder. Our goal is to provide players with strong and deep game experiences. We follow this goal by focusing on game creation processes that are interactive, stimulating, and fun while striving to deliver a unique and powerful gamer experience.

The company started in 2016 with DreamWrights' s new niche game genre of the action RPG, "The legendary stick fantasy, the Elden Ring". In 2017, we made "The Legend of the DreamWrights", bringing different worlds and characters to the player. In 2018, we are proposing something completely new and innovative by "The Elden Ring", our representative fantasy with an online multiplayer element.

※ When starting the game, all internet settings will be disabled by default. Please register with your information including an email address, submit the authorization form, and log in to play.

Note: Self-reported oral health status, dental attendance and use of dental services in the elderly. A sample of 1001 older adults living in the community was surveyed on their current oral health status and the variables of sex, age, self-rated oral health, dental attendance and use of dental services, as well as their current oral health status and their previous dental attendance. They were also interviewed on their demographic variables, including health problems and health-care seeking. The data showed that the mean number of natural teeth (decayed, missing or filled) was 11.08 (SD 3.59). Of all the participants, 26.7% had attended a dentist within the last year. A number of oral health problems, including toothache, tooth loss, gingivitis and periodontal disease, were reported by half of the participants. The majority of the participants had used the services of general dental practitioners, community dental services, hospitals and dental laboratories, while a much smaller proportion had used dental therapists. A number of factors were found to be associated with dental attendance and use of dental services. These included age, sex, self-rated oral health, dental attendance, dental care cost and
