

Beatbuddy is the first game in which players can enjoy music as an interactive playable remix. This all new game engine contains over 40 playable instruments of which you can create your own music. With individual game mechanics and 'just add sound' technology, each instrument is transformed into a series of bizarre sound effects that can be triggered on screen. Each of these instruments are animated into gameplay that reacts instantly and adapts to your musical composition.

Beatbuddy is a whole new way of experiencing music and defines the new genre: digital music. In Beatbuddy you can build your own Melodyball: Every time a note hits the screen, you'll see a corresponding animation. There's a lot of opportunities to make something cool. For instance, if you set the tempo with the A to B button and fill the screen with notes, the ball will only have to come down to get a '1'. If you want the sound to be high, you can set the volume with the left and right shoulder buttons, so that a ball that passes in the middle won't be decently loud, but the note is still going to get a '1' out of you! Do you want to get a '0'? If you set the tempo with the A to B button and do your best to fill the screen with notes, the ball will only get a '0'. And so on...The game engine is platform independent; it's also super easy to write plugins! Beatbuddy is available on Android and iOS now. Support the creation of the Beatbuddy game engine by purchasing Beatbuddy, and the soundtrack on iTunes:

The Assembly - Original Soundtrack Full Product Key

[Box Art] “Four friends dash together across vast lands and through crazy action sequences as they attempt to unite and take down a treacherous villain. While leaping and somersaulting across treacherous cliffs, they’ll fight against enemy soldiers and monsters, who are waiting to tear the group apart. You will need to use agility and teamwork to survive and escape with your friends.”

GAMEPLAY: – Aim-and-Kill shooting: Aim and kill any enemies that get between you and the exit. – Deadly Double Sink: Jump out of the golden exit, onto a raised rail, and double-sink right over to the exit and down into safety. – Head Butt: Walk too close to an enemy, hit him in the head, and you’ll knock him out. – Enemies come in different sizes, so speed is vital to survival.

- Game's controls are really easy to learn, but the harder puzzles require proper coordination.
- The Power Trip power-up gives you an extra multiplier, health, and speed.
- Your teammates appear when they're in range. Use their power to assist you in big trouble.
- As the game progresses you will unlock more and more weapons and power-ups to help you get through this adventure and reach your friends.

COLLECTION:

- The game comes with a Manual that talks about all the great characters and places in the game, as well as the hidden golden exit.
- The game also comes with an additional Worlds Map.
- It also comes with an additional Robots Map.
- It also comes with two additional Quests.

REPLAY:

- Five different worlds (with three additional hidden worlds if you find the secret golden exit)
- 10 satisfying Difficulty Levels
- New character to meet each time you play.
- Five weapons
- Five characters

to travel with – Five power-ups to unlock. – Five power-ups to unlock. COURSES: – A map editor will be added when the game is released. Thanks to: My brother Anthony, whose name is also Anthony, and who played about 4 hours of the game. My mother Mary, who somehow found out about the game and encouraged me to make it. The Neverhood team for making such a great game. Gambro for his educational and motivational videos about programming, which were a big help

Player 1 v Player 2 or an AI Planetarium 2 Control Screens (1 for each player) Inventory & Mutation Helmet HUD Disarm button Ceiling Dancer button (resets rotation speed) Choose weapons to attack enemy spaceships with Reset button Reset can happen when you lose health Mutation weapon (jump) Escape Control module: Gravity - Increase damage if the player is low on health Shield - Increase shield radius Dome - Makes Earth fully covered, all ships are destroyed You're up against the AI Planetarium. Use your modules to survive for as long as possible. If you don't destroy the enemy craft, you lose. You can choose to play against the planetarium or a human player. You can also play one or two player (depending on your computer's speed). You can play with a single control screen (1 person). Or, you can use two separate control screens so that you can play at the same time. Play the Planetarium with the following features enabled:

- 2 Control screens - Control both screens at once
- Auto-rotate - Keep rotating between the screens
- Dome ON - Once the dome is ON, the enemy is destroyed
- Minimum Damage - The enemy is destroyed if it's still alive after this much damage
- Damage - The amount of damage that the enemy takes
- Every 30 seconds, a random mutation will occur. The mutation takes effect on the alien ships and once you get the mutation you can change to the next player on your team.

*Every player has a different amount of tiles (2, 3, 4, etc). You can change the tiles to an amount that will provide you with the necessary speed to control the speed of the game. If you don't have enough tiles, the game will become a speed game (already tested and works perfectly).

Modules:

- Gravity - Increase damage if the player is low on health
- Shield - Increase shield radius
- Dome -

Makes Earth fully covered, all ships are destroyed Mutation weapon - A jump weapon that enables you to jump if you have very low health Escape - A button that ends the game when the player is no longer able to control the direction of the spaceship Hold the Ceiling Dancer button to rotate the play faster. Hold the Reset

'S REACTION: No, I was like — I use 10 years old son in a comment regarding this performance/movie. You do realise of course that George Carlin proved that most of stuff that we learn in schools is a bunch of crock. That deserved a #1 spot. sh-shezman 2 years ago 6 comments: Amen brother. I have followed him for over 30 years and I can tell you that he is brilliant. He changes movies, religion, politics and anything that comes his way and makes them great. And I for one really appreciate and love it. The content is always smart, funny and things that raise questions that makes people think, know and be. I hope that Dyer is having a good laugh. wfubarboi 2 years ago I thought it was a terrific performance. George Carlin was a man with a very quick wit, and a perfect example of this is the commentary many people have on American Film - "Al Roker Guest starred as the Winger's (sic) in South Park". He was a unique comedian, but when he started addressing current issues it became more and more interesting, especially when he chimes in occasionally. WooGirl 2 years ago I guess we missed it when you explained the award. Either way, I'm glad there's a context for this comment. I wasn't familiar with George Carlin and it was the first time I heard of him, so I thought this was just another odd and not-taken mainstream attempt at self-promoting. sh-shezman 2 years ago WooGirl: What the fuck is that? I don't disagree that he is a genius because that has already been established. Here are some other people equally intelligent and talented by comparison: Steven Wright, Joe Franklin, Stephen Colbert You are comparing yourself to Joe Franklin?! What the fuck girl, its one thing to be an Academy Award winner and be envied by many, but to stand on one's own talents and intelligence you are way out of your league. If you achieve anything by writing that drivel it's not a reason to be proud. Its makes you look like a punk. wfubarboi 2 years ago I forgot, I forgot, I forgot....WOO....girl....methinks you were dancing to Satan's
