In evaluating children with the eye-mouth-hand syndrome, the eye-hand test was employed to compare the children's eye-hand coordination with those of controls. The time of the group with the eye-mouth-hand syndrome to grasp the objects was significantly longer than that of the controls. The girls with the eye-mouth-hand syndrome made more errors in eye-hand coordination than the boys. Furthermore, a high degree of the eye-hand coordination disorder was found in all of the children with the eye-mouth-hand syndrome and the loss of the function of the hand areas of the cerebral hemispheres.It's only the most ironic part of this video. Christina, Amber, and Shelby were stuck in the house while all the other cast mates were getting to go to Sundance this weekend. Little did we know what was going on. Christina and Amber were backstage where the other girls who were bumped were hanging out. It was a great moment to talk about life in the spotlight and how much you love each other and how much you look up to each other. While fans were waiting to see how pretty Amber looked in an outfit that was inspired by the show's win, she got a text from Christina with the address of the Sundance premiere. Christina called another friend and asked if she had a place to crash. She said yes! The girls called their other friends and everyone went to film the video. They went to Sundance and Christina won the FF Spirit Award. "How weird is this?" Amber asked in the video. "We're so happy right now, but it's also crazy because I was actually texting her when I'm sitting in the green ro
