Purcell, Edwin.Q: CSS - adding border from top only to a container Currently I have a container and borders on the bottom. I want to add a border to the top of the container only. Is there any simple way of doing this? A: You can use border-top-width to set the desired thickness and left and right to make the border appear on the top and bottom of the rectangle. Setting the left and right property to zero will create a horizontal line. `div { width: 200px; 6d1f23a050`
